Another Source Continues Growth with Two New Team Members

SEATTLE, Wash. (June 25, 2007) – Seattle-based employment referral service company, Another Source, recently hired two new team members. Ana Gonzalez will serve as a talent strategist and Tracy Russell will be the business development manager.

“With our significant growth over the past few months, we are fortunate to have found two team members who will help us continue success with our client services,” said Marcie Glenn, president of Another Source. “With such diverse and seasoned backgrounds, Ana and Tracy are already proving to be a great addition to our team.”

Russell brings 20 years of experience in the industry to the team. Her focus has been in human resources, recruiting and sales and seen Seattle’s job market through many phases.

Gonzalez is a University of Washington graduate and worked for Lakeside Capital Management, LLC as the client relations director before joining the team at Another Source. In 2005, she also helped launch the Just Cauz Foundation, an organization that raises money and awareness for local charities by organizing fun events and volunteer opportunities.
